

Story #452

Narrator: Professor Suheyl Ünver

Location: Istanbul

Date: 1971

Behlül Dane Awaits Pick-Pocket at Cemetery

Once when Behlül Dane was walking along a street in Baghdad, he had his purse stolen by a pick-pocket. The pick-pocket ran away, but Behlül did not bother to chase him. Instead, he walked directly to the cemetery. To those who saw him there he said, "Let him go wherever he will. Sooner or later, this is the place to which he will come."