Battal Hoca in Jail¹ #588

Battal Hoca once committed an offense for which he and several of his followers had been thrown into jail. There Battal Hoca wanted to conduct a bayram² service, but one of his followers objected. "I do not want to stand in this row and be led in prayer by you. I want to stand behind Süleyman Hoca, the son of Hızır in the village of Emirüski."

"Why is this?" asked Battal Hoca.

"Well, we followed you before, and see where we are now!"

² A bayram is a religious holiday.
